2015 HIGHLIGHTS

Thank you for your support of the Romans Project this year! Thousands of pastors have been challenged and have received the blessing that comes through the diligent study of Romans and the resource of the teaching of Pastor Scott Gilchrist on the mp3 players. Several new countries (in bold type) have now had their first RP Conferences. Bonheur Heri, RP Coordinator working under Albert Mabasi, Rwanda and Burundi RP Director, has made several trips into Congo and held the first conferences there. Nigeria RP Director, Rev. Titus Turaki, has recently held the first RP Conference in Galmi, Niger. Pastor Ken Onywoki, Kenya RP Director, traveled to a very dangerous and remote town called Torit in South Sudan. In November, Rick Calenberg went to Zambia and met Pastor Zinga Banda whom he met through our new Botswana RP Director Kenosi Molatu. In all, Romans Project activity began in new six countries in 2015! Before work could begin in these countries Marshall Brown worked with translators on two separate trips to Kenya, to bring the teachings on Romans to eight more languages!

He is shown here with missionary Alicia Lau who is awarding the first Mp3 player to a Nigerian pastor. BELOW: The first ten participants from the Congo. The RP opened in this new country in May under Director Bonhuer Heri (left).

Thank you for your support. We praise God for allowing us to be part of something that He is blessing and using for His glory!
